manufactured in the last year. During the current year much larger quantity, not less than 2000 maunds, has to be manufactured as no more ganja can be exported from the Bombay Presidency or any other foreign Territory.
The ganja Inspector has up to date selected suitable lands measuring more than 62 acres and received applications from the occupants thereof to cultivate ganja on them during the current year Her services are required at least for two years more to make the reports sufficiently familiar with the mode of the manufacture and curing of the drugs. c — In these circumstances, I beg to solicit the sanction of Government to continue the services of the Inspector and his peon for a further period of two years terminating with 30th June 1903.

2. I beg to solicit that the Agricultural Inspectors applied for in my letter No $\frac{6676}{413}$, dated $\frac{12^{th}}{14}$ June 1901, may be kindly placed early at my disposal, as it is not possible for

X G.R. 39-1900-01 Sl. No. 6966. Adverting to para 3 of the Assistant Resident's letter No. X 2972, dated 19th June 1901, to the Dewan of Mysore, a copy of which was forwarded to me with your official memo. No. X 10219/Ex. 7-2-97, dated 25th June 1901, I have the honor to state that during the current year the local ryots cultivated about 80 acres of land with Ganja hemp; and the Ganja cured up to date, amounts to 450 maunds. It has been weighed weighed and deposited at the Government Central Distillery buildings. The present Contractors have their own stock to last up to the end of their contract i.e. up to 30th June 1902. Therefore they are not in need of purchasing the Ganja locally passed in the current year and it will have to be purchased by the future contractors. But in the meantime the pyoli have to be paid for their Ganja delivered at the Government Central Distillery buildings. I beg to submit therefore that the Comptroller of Income may be authorized to pay me an adv up to Rs 4000/- to enable me to make payments at once to the owners of the locality for Ganja As soon as the Contract for the next quinquennium is settled, the advanced amount will be recovered from the future Contractors and returned to the

Sir

Adverting to Government Proceedings No. 8791-92 / E.E. 2-97, Dated 7th December 1901, sanctioning the employment of six temporary peons on Rs 7/- each to watch the Ganja which is being manufactured, I have the honor to state that four peons are permanently required to guard the Ganja store room both day and night by turns, and also to keep a vigilant watch during the times of Ganja to the Depôts. I beg to solicit therefore that sanction may be accorded to the permanent employment of four peons.

2 Hitherto the stores were chiefly watched by the Ganja Contractors. As the contract comes to termination on 31st July 1902, Government Ganja is being collected; hence the immediate necessity for the additional guarding establishment.

I have the honor to be,
